What are the responsibilities of the PA Auditor General?

- Serves as chief fiscal watchdog of the Commonwealth
- Responsible for using audits to ensure that all state money is spent legally and properly
- Checks the spending of public money by looking at whether it has been used ideally and for the purposes intended

What has this candidate done that qualifies them for the Auditor General position?

- Education: BA in Public Communications/Political Science, Temple University
MS in Strategic and Digital Communications, Drexel University
- In his current position as PA State Representative, District 181, Malcolm has . . .
 - ◇ Been a vocal proponent of protecting workers' rights, enacting commonsense gun safety policies, and rooting out government corruption and waste
 - ◇ Served in leadership roles as Chair of the Subcommittee on Government Operations (oversight of state agencies and elections) and Chair of Automation and Technology in the Commerce Committee
- Chosen to give the keynote address at the 2020 Democratic National Convention along with a group of other "Rising Stars"
- Became the first openly LGBTQ+ person of color in the PA General Assembly

What are this candidate's goals if elected PA Auditor General?

- It's time for the underdog to be a watchdog for working families.
- I will rebuild the bureau of school audits, restart the annual compliance audits ended by the current Auditor General, and demand accountability from all our schools.
- I will stand up for our workers by creating a worker liaison and use the power of the office to take on wage theft, employee misclassification, and union busting.
- I will measure and support efforts to make communities healthier and safer.
